MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Clearance Division

FROM : [REDACTED]
Deputy Chief, Staff & Operations Branch

SUBJECT : Office of Security Monthly Report of Trends and Highlights for February 1977

1. Attached is the note from the DD/PSI, inquiring about the accuracy of the processing time statistics for February 1977.

2. The statistics to which the DD/PSI refers are inaccurate because of an error in compiling the figures for that month. In February, as well as January and March 1977, the processing time was incorrectly computed. The error was made in adding the total days that the average case was deferred, either pre or post field, into the total number of days the average case was in Clearance Division. This was a mistake because the pending deferred days were already included in the days the case was in Clearance Division. According to the Deputy Chief, Security Records Division, the only reason for a separate listing of the figures this way, the monthly [REDACTED] report is to give a true picture as to how much time was spent in a pending deferred status.

3. As a result of this error, the figures for the days in appraisal and research should read as follows:

Date	Number of Cases	Days in Appraisal and Research
January 1977	153	10.6 (not 14.1)
February 1977	199	11.0 (not 22.2)
March 1977	452	11.3 (not 17.7)
